Water Sweeps Down Castle Valley. Carrying With It Logs and Lumber.

Huntington, July 28.—The flood season for Castle valley has commenced. On Sunday evening one of the largest floods known here came down what is known as Crandall canyon, a tributary of Hunt ington canyon, destroying the road and taking out all the bridges. It came down through the logging camps of the Huntington Lumber company's sawmills, carrying logs, log carts and harness with it. It will require several bundred dollars to repair the damage done. One of the results of the flood is that the water ditches have been and are yet full of rolling mud, which is very disagreeable to those who have no water in their

BLACK MAN HANGED AND BODY FILLED WITH LEAD.

Pensacola, Fla., July 29.-Three men dead and a score wounded, probably fatally, is the record of an attempt tonight by a mob to storm the county jail and take out the negro, Leander Shaw, who today assaulted Mrs. Lillian Davis near here.

The mob numbered probably a thousand persons and gathered early, but there was no apparent indication until two hours later that the crowd, which completely surrounded the jail, contemplated making a rush.

The first indication was when a railroad iron rail was brought into play by about a dozen men on the iron gate of the jall yard. At the same moment the entire mob seemed to catch the spirit, and, with yells and curses, dashed for the jail entrance. Some climbed over the tall iron fence, while others hammered upon the gate.
